Legal Department.

The H.& L.G.D. draft rule seeks to prohibit the photograph of a distinguished personality. The candidate may evade the provisions of the rule by not using a photograph for the purpose of the block. Moreover, the expression "distinguished personlaity" is vague and indefinite. It will be a matter of opinion whether a particular person is a distinguished personality or not. The follwing proviso may therefore be added to rule 25, namely:-

"Provided that no symbol denoting any individual dead or alive, shall be adopted for the guidance of voters except with previous approval of the Collector."

In order to achieve the end in view, executive instructions may be issued to the Collectors to disapprove symbols of distinguished personalities, such as national leaders, etc.
